

General Information

Duration	2 days	Total hours	16
Language	English	Classroom Training	8
Class size	4 to 12 attendees	Discussion Forum	3
Course Fee	899CHF / 579EUR

Target Groups

- ⇒ All Maintenance and Administrative Staff of Maintenance and Repair Organizations

Learning Objectives

- ⇒ Understanding the importance of considering human factors
- ⇒ Understanding the relation between the different factors be able to identify the components or parts
- ⇒ Improving organizational safety and resilience
- ⇒ Improving overall staff competences and satisfaction

Content / Course Description

- ⇒ This two day initial training for EASA Part-145 Organizations covers all aspects as required for aircraft maintenance companies
- ⇒ With practical examples, movies, discussions and group work, the attendee is introduced into the world of human factors in a practical way that shows the relation between the four competence needs every human being must have in order to demonstrate situational awareness
- ⇒ By analysing incidents and accidents that happened in the industry, we will be able to learn how Human Factors can affect safety and how precautions and safety nets can help us improving both the safety in the industry and our own working environment

Did you know...

groWING of Switzerland GmbH

p.o. box 213
ch-6331 huenenberg/zug

office +4141 210 4141
fax +4141 210 4142
info@groWING.aero
www.groWING.aero

...that we are an enduring leader in the aviation industry, driving the evolution of the sector with forward-thinking and innovative solutions that enable our clients to efficiently manage their business. We are an agile, credible and interactive organization that provides the model for a new generation of aviators.