

General Information
Duration	2 days	Total hours	14
Language	English
Class size	4 to 12 attendees
Course Fee	CHF 1'290
Target Groups
<ul style="list-style-type: none">⇒ Engineering & Planning Personell⇒ EASA Postholders⇒ Continiuing Airworthiness Staff
Learning Objectives
<ul style="list-style-type: none">⇒ Participants will understand the regulation, necessity and content of a maintenance programme⇒ Participants will be able to develop, amend and maintain an aircraft maintenance programme
Content / Course Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none">⇒ Based on EASA Part-M, this course gives an insight on how to develop and maintain maintenance programmes.⇒ The course provides an overview of the basic documents and requirements for the issuance and amendment of maintenance programmes.

Did you know...

groWING of Switzerland GmbH
p.o. box 213
ch-6331 huenenberg/zug

office +4141 210 4141
fax +4141 210 4142
info@groWING.aero
www.groWING.aero

...that we are an enduring leader in the aviation industry, driving the evolution of the sector with forward-thinking and innovative solutions that enable our clients to efficiently manage their business. We are an agile, credible and interactive organization that provides the model for a new generation of aviators.